

Prediction Exercise 5

<http://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/271>

Instructions: Before your child begins reading the story, instruct him to read the title. The title is: A Fair Start. Ask him what he thinks the chapter will talk about. Instruct him to finish writing the Prediction Sentence below. Next tell your child to read the story. After he has finished reading, ask him if the chapter talks about the topic he predicted it would talk about. Instruct him to finish the After Prediction Sentence below. This gives your child focus before, during and after reading.

Prediction Sentence: The story will be about

After Prediction Sentence: The story was about
